FOREIGN POLICY REPORTS

RECEIVED
AUG 0 2 1948
MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE
OF AGRI. AND APP. SCIENCE

Index to Volume XXIII

March 15, 1947 to March 1, 1948

Foreign Policy Association, Incorporated

MIDSTON HOUSE, 22 EAST 38th STREET, NEW YORK 16, N. Y.

CONTENTS

Page

No. 1. FOREIGN TRADE POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES, by Harold H. Hutcheson; The Merchant Marine Problem, by Harold H. Hutcheson and O. K. D. Ringwood 2

No. 2. IMMIGRATION POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES, by Earl G. Harrison; Racial Limitations in Immigration and Naturalization Laws, by Charles Gordon 14

No. 3. THE FIVE AXIS SATELLITE PEACE TREATIES, by Winifred N. Hadsel; The Campaign for Treaty Revision, by Winifred N. Hadsel and O. K. D. Ringwood 22

No. 4. EMPIRES IN TRANSITION — BRITISH, FRENCH AND DUTCH COLONIAL PLANS, by Vernon McKay; Colonial Representation in the French Parliament, by Vernon McKay and Monique Polgar 34

No. 5. THE OCCUPATION OF JAPAN, by Lawrence K. Rosinger; The Japanese Elections of April-May 1947, by Lawrence K. Rosinger and O. K. D. Ringwood 50

No. 6. SOUTH AFRICA—LAND OF CONFLICT, by Grant S. McClellan; South Africa and the United Nations, by O. K. D. Ringwood and Grant S. McClellan 62

No. 7. THE INDEPENDENCE OF INDIA, by Phillips Talbot; Britain's Proposals on India, June 1947, by Lawrence K. Rosinger 74

No. 8. RUSSIA'S INTERNAL ECONOMIC PROBLEMS, by Vera Micheles Dean; Wages and Prices in the U.S.S.R., by Vera Micheles Dean and O. K. D. Ringwood 98

No. 9. INTERNATIONAL AGENCIES FOR EUROPEAN RECONSTRUCTION, by Harold H. Hutcheson; Excerpts from the Terms of Reference for the Economic Commission for Europe, selected by Ona K. D. Ringwood 110

No. 10. SPAIN IN THE POST-WAR WORLD, by Robert Okin; Spain's Foreign Relations, by Robert Okin and O. K. D. Ringwood 122

No. 11. REORGANIZATION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, by Blair Bolles; Modern Functions and Tasks of the State Department, by Blair Bolles and O. K. D. Ringwood 134

No. 12. AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD GREECE, by Winifred N. Hadsel; The United States and the Greek Border Problem, by Winifred N. Hadsel and O. K. D. Ringwood 146

No. 13. THE UNITED NATIONS: ITS RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT, by Leland M. Goodrich; Publications on the U.N., by O. K. D. Ringwood 162

No. 14. THE TURKISH STRAITS AND THE GREAT POWERS, by Cyril E. Black; U.S. AID TO TURKEY, by Winifred N. Hadsel 174

No. 15. THE OCCUPATION OF KOREA, by George M. McCune; Prospects for a Korean Settlement, by George M. and Evelyn B. McCune 186

No. 16. AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD GERMANY, by James K. Pollock and Edward S. Mason 198

No. 17. TECHNICAL SPECIALIZED AGENCIES OF THE U.N.—FINANCE, TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATION, AND TRADE, by Fred L. Hadsel; The Specialized Agencies and the U.N., by Fred L. Hadsel and O. K. D. Ringwood 214

No. 18. THE NEW POLAND, by S. Harrison Thomson; Problems of Polish Foreign Policy, by S. Harrison Thomson and O. K. D. Ringwood 226

No. 19. EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM: PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS, by Harold H. Hutcheson; The Impact of Foreign Aid on U.S. Economy, by Harold H. Hutcheson and O. K. D. Ringwood 238

No. 20. BRITAIN'S CRISIS AND AMERICAN AID, by Grant S. McClellan; British Statistics, by Grant S. McClellan and O. K. D. Ringwood 250

No. 21. LATIN AMERICA AND THE UNITED STATES — PROBLEMS OF ECONOMIC READJUSTMENT, by Olive Holmes; Latin America in the Marshall Plan, by Olive Holmes and O. K. D. Ringwood 262

No. 22. HUMAN WELFARE SPECIALIZED AGENCIES OF U.N.—LABOR, FOOD, EDUCATION, HEALTH, AND REFUGEES, by Fred L. Hadsel; International Children's Emergency Fund, by Fred L. Hadsel and Nancy J. Grube 274

No. 23. PARTITION OF PALESTINE, by Thomas J. Hamilton; Geographic Partition of Palestine, by Thomas J. Hamilton and O. K. D. Ringwood 286

No. 24. AMERICAN SECURITY AND FOREIGN OIL, by Bernard Brodie; Oil Resources of the U.S.S.R., by Bernard Brodie and Ruth Adamson 298

A

Africa
Decision on Italy's colonies postponed for one year, 27

Albania
Total Italy must pay in reparations, 25

Algeria
Complicated by mixed population, 43

Argentina
Bilateral trade, 268
Deficit in trade, 267
Fails to join FAO, 277
Foreign relations with Spain, 127
Inflation, 266
Polish trade treaty, 234
Spanish-Argentine commercial agreement, 128

Atcheson, George, Jr.
On identity of Japanese aims with Allied aims, 55

Australia
Refugee program, 283

Austria
Polish trade treaty, 234

Axis Satellites
Compensation to Allied property owners, 26
Equality of trading opportunity, 26
Free navigation of the Danube, 26-27
Obstacles in the way of peace-making, 22-23
Peace treaties signed 1947, 22
Political clause of peace treaties, 27-31
Reparations clauses of the peace treaties, 24-26
Role of the Paris Peace Conference, 23-24
Withdrawal of Allied troops; provisions of treaties, 30

B

Belgium
Refugee program, 283

Bierut, Boleslau, see Poland

Black, C. E.
The Turkish Straits and the Great Powers, 174-182

Bolivia
Named to UN Commission on Palestine, 294

Bolles, Blair
Modern Functions and Tasks of the State Department, 144
Reorganization of the State Department, 134-143

Brazil
Brazil's cruzeiros bonfire, 268
Foreign exchange, 267
Inflation, 265
Production costs, 265
Refugee program, 282

Brodie, Bernard
American Security and Foreign Oil, 298-311

Brodie, Bernard and Ruth Adamson
Oil Resources of the U.S.S.R., 312

Bulgaria
Campaign for treaty revision, 32
Peace treaty signed 1947, 22
Polish trade treaty, 234
Territorial terms of peace treaty, 29

Byrnes, J. F.
On Control Council government of Germany, 200

C

Canada
Refugee program, 282

Coal
Available resources, 305

Colonies
Arab world, 42-43
British African progress toward self-government, 41-42
British cocoa marketing, 36
British Colonial Development and Welfare Act, 36
British colonial mining policy, 36-37
British colonial office movement to unite West Indian colonies in self-governing federation, 44
British educational reforms, 37
British government plan for vegetable oil from African governments, 36
Cameroons Development Corporation, 36
Caribbean Commission, 44
Colonial planners, Jonkman, Jones and Moutet, 34-35
Eboué concept of native policy, 42
French educational reforms, 38-39
French grant autonomy to Cambodia and Laos, 41
French hope to placate Tunisia by concessions, 42
French proclaim Cochin-China a free state, 41
French territories represented in parliament, 44
French Union outline, 39
French West and Equatorial Africa, 42
Indo-China wartime plan, 41
Is gradualism fast enough, 46-47
Moroccan nationalism, 43
Netherlands economic development, 37
Netherlands educational plans, 38-39
Netherlands-Indonesia outline, 39-40
Netherlands plans for Indonesia, 41
New constitution for Ceylon, 40
Policies compared, 44-46
Reforms, 35
Sarawak and North Borneo made crown colonies, 40-41
South Pacific Commission, 44
West Indies comprise fifteen territories, 43-44

Conference of Foreign Ministers, Paris, 1947
Ends in deadlock, 118-119

Council of Foreign Ministers, Moscow, 1947
Marshall report, 110

Council of Foreign Ministers, New York, 1946
Third session, 24-28

Creech Jones, Arthur
On termination of Palestine mandate, 243

Crimea Conference (Yalta)
Accepts Lublin Committee border, 227

Czechoslovakia
Named to UN Commission on Palestine, 294
Polish trade treaty, 234
Territorial terms of Hungarian peace treaty, 29
Treaty of alliance and mutual assistance with Poland, 236

D

Danube
Free navigation of, 26-27

Dean, V. M.
Russia's Internal Economic Problems, 98-107
Wages and Prices in the U.S.S.R., 107-108

Denmark
Named to UN Commission on Palestine, 294
Polish trade agreement, 233

E

Ethiopia
Total Italy must pay in reparations, 25

European Recovery Program
Communist attack on the Marshall plan, 246
Domestic recovery problems, 242-244
Economic Commission for Europe, 242
Emergency Economic Committee for Europe (EECE), purposes, 114-115
European Central Inland Transport Organization (ECITO), purposes, 112-113
European Coal Organization, purposes, 113-115
Europe's pre-war economy, 238-240
First session of Economic Commission for Europe, 118
Food supply problem, 248
Four cooperative projects of the Committee of European Economic Cooperation, 245-246
General Report on four year program submitted to Washington by the Committee of Economic Cooperation on September 22, 244-245
Harriman Committee report on foreign aid, 248
Impact of World War II, 240-242
Intra-European trade, 242
Marshall speech at Harvard, June 5, 1947, 111, 238
Need for European cooperation, 244
Output targets of Committee of European Economic cooperation, 245
Paris Conference of Foreign Ministers ends in deadlock, 118-119
Recovery less than what was authorized in Allied level-of-industry agreement of March 28, 1946, 242
Soviet and the Economic Commission for Europe, 116-118
Tariff barrier rise almost uninterrupted, 239
UN economic survey of Europe, 115-116
Volume of British exports must be increased over 1938 figure, 241
Wage price spiral, 248

F

Finland
Peace treaty signed 1947, 22
Polish trade treaty, 234
Russian total of reparations, 25
Territorial terms of peace treaty, 29-30

Food and Agriculture Organization
Aims and accomplishments, 276-277
Efforts to solve food problems, 276-277
Our plan rejected, 277
Publications, 276
World Food Council established, 277

France
Colonial representation in Parliament, tables, 47
Compensation to Allied property owners, 26
Economic situation critical, 243
Foreign relations with Spain, 27
Free navigation of the Danube, 26-27
French-Spanish crisis, 125
Interests in the Straits, 178
Refugee program, 283
Treaty with Turkey, 1939, 179
See also Colonies; Germany
Franco, Francisco, see Spain

G

Germany
Allied Control Authority, 200
American interpretation of reparations, 210
Anglo-American economic merger; organization, 203, 204
Berlin elections, 201
British and American zones encourage political activities, 202
Changes in American policy, 206-207
Denazification, 202-203
Differences between Allies, 200-201
Failure of Moscow, 204-206
Four million war casualties, 198
Imports estimated at $2 billion a year, 207
Interdependence of eastern and western Germany, 208-209
Laender either revived or created, 202
Level of industry agreement, 1946, 1947, terms, 209
Marshall plan and German economy, 211-212
Marshall report on Moscow, 204
Minister Presidents of four zones, Munich conference, 201
Potsdam agreement terms, 208-210
Problems of Allied occupation, 198-199
Relief totals $350 million yearly, 207
Reparations dilemma, 209-210
"Rump Germany," population, 199
Russian attitude at Moscow, 210-211
Russian interpretation of reparations, 210
Russia's demand for $10 billion in reparations, 210
Soviet authorities prevent free growth of political parties, 202

Strict regulation of political activities in French zone, 202
Treatment as economic unit, 208-209
War damages, 199
Gomulka, Wladyslaw
In charge of Recovered Lands in Poland, 232
Goodrich, L. M.
The United Nations: Its Record of Achievement, 162-172
Gordon, Charles
Racial Limitations in Immigration and Naturalization Laws, 20
Great Britain
American and British position on revisions in Montreux Convention, 174-175
Anglo-Polish controversies, 235
Armed forces cut in 1948, 256
Auto and truck output, 254
Balance of payments, 260
British statistics, 260-261
Changing capital plans, under Cripps program, 257-258
Churchill-Franco correspondence, 124
Coal, manpower figures and annual production rates, 254
Coal mining, plans for modernization, 252
Control of Engagement Order, peacetime conscription, 251
Crisis planning under Sir Stafford Cripps as Minister of Economic Affairs, 256-258
Economic policy in the White Paper of 1944, 243
Exchanges on Polish elections between Britain and the U.S. and Soviet Union, 231
Food output, 254
Food restrictions under austerity program, 252
Foreign relations with Spain, 127
Gross receipts from foreign investments, 255
Harriman Committee recommendations to Congress, 259
Housing program, effects of crisis, 252, 253, 258
"Industrial Charter" adopted at Conservative party's Brighton conference, 251
Interests in the Straits, 177
Labor government recasting its program, 243
Labor's record to date, 253-254
Loan of $3.75 billion from the United States, 250-254
London Economist comment on Export-Import Bank's defense of its policy, 8
Notifies the U.S. of the withdrawal of British troops from Greece, 147
Overseas trade in 1947, 260
Polish trade treaty, 234
Problems of financing trade, 255
Protests Polish elections, 235
Real national product, 260
Refugee program, 283
Role of U.S. aid in British recovery, 258-259
Spanish imports and exports, 128
Steel output, 254
Surplus property and investment credit to Poland, $48 million, 233
Treaty with Turkey, 1939, 179
Wartime loss of national wealth, 240
See also Axis Satellites; Colonies; Germany; India
Greece
Austin offers resolution asking immediate action by Security Council of the U.N., Soviet vetoes proposal, 160
Balkan Commission report, 159
Bids for power by Communist-led EAM, 151-153
Conflicting arguments in behalf of "intervention" and "non-intervention," 157
Deeply-rooted political conflict, 150-154
Economic crisis, 148-150
Economic reforms stressed by U.S., 155-156
Elections held in atmosphere of fear, 153-154
M. F. Ethridge heads Balkan Commission, 158
D. P. Griswold announces award of transportation contracts, 156
Historic background of Balkan wars, 158
Interference in internal affairs avoided, 157
Macedonian issue stressed, 159-160
Rebellion led by "Democratic Army," 154-155
Reforms urged by U.S., 154
Results of foreign aid disappointing, 149-150
Sources of Communists' strength in the resistance, 151
Total Italy must pay in reparations, 25
Truman Doctrine, 146-148, 156-157, 182
Truman Doctrine sends $300 million for military and economic assistance, 146
Tsaldaris gives way to Maximos government; Marshall's comment, 154
Vafthiadis proclaims "free government," 156
Varkiza Agreement, 152
UNRRA, total expenditure, 150
U.S. suggestion adopted to appoint Security Council members to investigate border problems, 158
Grube, N. J.
International Children's Emergency Fund, 283

H

Hadsel, F. L.
Human Welfare Specialized Agencies of U.N.—Labor Food, Education, Health, and Refugees, 274-283
International Children's Emergency Fund, 283
Specialized Agencies and the U.N., 224
Technical Specialized Agencies of the U.N.—Finance, Transport and Communication, and Trade, 214-223
Hadsel, W. N.
American Policy Toward Greece, 146-157
The Campaign for Treaty Revision, 32
The Five Axis Satellite Peace Treaties, 22-31
The U.S. and the Greek border problem, 158-160
U.S. aid to Turkey, 182-184

Hamilton, T. J.
Geographic Partition of Palestine, 296
Partition of Palestine, 286-295
Harrison, E. G.
Immigration Policy of the U.S., 14-20
Health Organization of the League of Nations, see World Health Organization
Holmes, Olive
Latin America and the U.S.—Problems of Economic Readjustment, 262-271
Latin America in the Marshall Plan, 271
Hoover, Herbert
On industry as war potential, 204
Hungary
Campaign for treaty revision, 32
Peace treaty signed 1947, 22
Polish trade treaty, 234
Territorial terms of peace treaty, 29
Total of Russian reparations, 26
Hutcheson, H. H.
European Recovery Program: Problems and Prospects, 238-247
Foreign Trade Policy of the U.S., 2-11
Impact of Foreign Aid on U.S. Economy, 248
International Agencies for European Reconstruction, 110-119
Merchant Marine Problem, 12
Hylean Amazon, see UNESCO

I

Immigration and Emigration
"Asiatic Barred Zone," 20
Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882, 20
Curtailment reduces foreign-born and alien population, 17
Displaced persons, total, 18-19
Drive for further restriction, 17-18
Immigration Act of 1924, provisions, 16-17
Immigration Act of 1917, provisions, 16
Immigration Act of 1882, 15
Immigration Commission findings, 16
"Know nothing," 15
Mounts, 15
Quota Act of 1921, 16
Truman on displaced persons, 19
Unrestricted immigration, 14-15
Wickersham Commission studies, 18
India
Asian Relations Conference, 74
Britain's proposals, March, June 1947, 95-96
British position, 75-76
Communists, 85
Congress-selected Interim government takes office, 79-80
Cripps' offer of Indian Dominionhood fails, 77-78
Economic trends, 77
Hindustan, 91-93
Indian Civil Service, 75-76
Indian National Congress, history, 81-83
Indian position, 76-78
Indian States, total, 86-87
Jinnah and Muslim League Council renew demand for sovereign Pakistan, 79
Lord Linlithgow on authority to take over, 76
Muslim League and Jinnah, 83-85
Nationalist movements, 76-77
Nehru on Interim government, 80
Pakistan to be two separate regions, 90-91, 93-94
Political maze in 1946, 78-81
Political trends, 77-78
Prime Minister Attlee announces British plan to withdraw not later than June 1948, 74-75
Prospects for the future, 87-91
Provincial partition, 91
Sikhs, 90-91
Simla conference fails, 78
Socialists, 85-86
Social trends, 77
Indonesian Republic
Dutch and Indonesian dispute, 168
International Bank for Reconstruction and Development
Achievements, 214-216
Applications for loans, 215-216
Bretton Woods conference, 1944, 215, 216
J. T. McCloy succeeds Eugene Meyer as president, 215
U.S. contributions, 215
International Children's Emergency Fund (ICEF)
Grants and objectives, 284
International Civil Aviation Organization
Civil aviation, 218-219
Civil Aviation conference, Chicago; achievements, 218
Montreal Assembly, achievements, 218-219
Ratified, 218
International Labor Organization
Established as League of Nations organization, 274
Industrial Committees program, 274-275
Membership, 274
Regional basis of considering labor problems, 275
Thirtieth annual conference, Geneva, 275
International Monetary Fund
Achievements in stabilization, 216-218
Expands research activities, 217
Maintenance of foreign exchange members' currency, 217
Relaxation of exchange restrictions, 217
Short-term sale of currency to boster exchange rates, 217
International Public Health Office, see World Health Organization
International Refugee Organization (IRO)
Aid to refugees, history, 281-283
Resettlement projects, 282-283

International Telecommunications Union
History; assumes more responsibility for international radio, telephone and telegraph, 219-220

International Trade Organization
Geneva conference achievements, 221
History and major problems, 221-223

Italy
Campaign for treaty revision, 32
Economic situation critical, 243
Free Territory of Trieste in the peace treaty, 27-29
Peace treaty signed, 1947, 22
Polish trade treaty, 234
Territorial settlement, 27-29
Total to be paid in reparations, 25

J

Japan
Action against Zaibatsu, 56-57
Allied Council for Japan, eleven governments represented, 50
Communist party, 55
Constitution, 60
Economic situation, 56-58
Election results, 1946, 55
Elections of April-May 1947, 60
Far Eastern Commission, 50
Foreign trade, two conflicting aspects, 58
Inflation and food, 58
Higashi-Kuni on war's termination, 54
Hirohito and the constitution, 55-56
Labor union membership, 58-59
Land reform, 57
Liberal party, 54-55
MacArthur on "spiritual revolution," 51
MacArthur warns Yoshida cabinet on vigorous economic measures, 58
Political composition of union membership, 59
Politics since V-J Day, 53-56
Population estimate, 58
Position of MacArthur, 50-51
Potsdam agreement, terms on occupation, 51-52
Progressive (democratic) party, 54-55
Real change or apparent, 51
Reparations proposals, 57
Reparations question of importance in keeping Japan disarmed, 57
Reparations removed from Manchuria, Far Eastern Commission and Russians not able to agree, 57
SCAP directives, 53
Social Democratic party, 55
Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers (SCAP); organization and personnel, 52-53
U.S. Initial Post-Surrender Policy drafted for guidance of MacArthur, 52
Women vote for the first time, 55
Yoshida regime steps up food collections, 58
Yoshida succeeds Shidehara as Premier, 55

Jonkman, Jan Anne, see Colonies

K

Korea
Agriculture predominates, 191
American occupation zone, 188-191
Change-over to Korean personnel, 189
Collapse of Japanese control, 186-188
Economic rehabilitation, 190-191
Economic revolution, 192-193
Elections in North Korea, 192
Failure of American-Soviet negotiations, 194-195
Interim Legislative Assembly convened, responsibility, 189
Korean people's militia formed in North Korea, 192
Koreanization program, 188-189
Land reform enacted in North Korea, 193
Land tenure problem, 191
Lyuh Woon Hyung named head of People's Republic, 187
Marshall lays case before UN, 195
Marshall-Molotov letters, 194-195
Moscow plan, 194
National Democratic Front formed in North Korea, 192
Nationalization of industry in North Korea, 193
People's Committee of Northern Korea formed, 192
Politics swayed by two extremes, Right and Left, 190
Price rise, 190
Prospects for a settlement, 196
Soviet command orders "Executive Committee of the Korean people" to take over powers of chosen government general, 187
Soviet occupation zone, 191-193
Soviet Union proposes joint withdrawal, 196
Structure of the American Military Government under Gen. Hodges, 188
Thirty-eighth parallel dividing line, 186

L

Latin America
Chile proposes to establish economic commission for Latin America, 262
Cost of living up, 266
Defensive bilateralism, 268-269
Dislocation of trade with U.S., 266-267
Export-Import Bank loans, 270
Foreign loans and domestic welfare, 269
Ill effects of war, 264-265
Industry: passport to stability, 263-264
Inflation, 265-266
Inflationary pressure, 265
Marshall plan, 272
Offshore procurement program, 272
Postpones Pan-American conference at Bogotá, 263
Problems of readjustment, 265-267
U.S. import-export trade, 264

M

McClellan, G. S.
Britain's Crisis and American Aid, 250-259

British Statistics, 259-260
South Africa and the U.N., 70-72
South Africa—Land of Conflict, 62-70

McCune, G. M.
Occupation of Korea, 186-195

McCune, G. M., E. B. McCune
Prospects for a Korean Settlement, 193

McKay, Vernon
Empires in Transition—British, French and Dutch Colonial Plans, 34-47

McKay, Vernon and Monique Polgar
Colonial Representation in the French Parliament, 48

MacArthur, Douglas, see Japan

Marshall Plan, see European Recovery Program

Mason, E. S.
Economic Situation in Germany, 206-212

Mexico
Defensive bilateralism, 268
Import surplus, 267
Polish trade treaty, 234
Proved oil reserves, 304

Mikolajczyk, Stanislaw, see Poland

Modzelewski, Zygmunt
Stresses Poland's willingness to trade with any countries interested in world reconstruction and peace, 236

Montreux Convention, see Turkey

Moutet, Marius, see Colonies

N

Netherlands
Dutch and Indonesian dispute, 168
Polish trade treaty, 234
Refugee program, 283

See also Colonies

Norway
Export-Import Bank loan provisions, 9
Polish trade agreement, 233

O

Oil, see Petroleum

Okin, Robert
Spain in the Post-War World, 122-131
Spain's foreign relations, 131

P

Pakistan
Admitted to membership in UN, 163

Palestine
Analysis of final vote, 297
Anglo-America Committee of Inquiry report, 286
Arab countries protest partition, 294-295
Arab Higher Committee boycotts UNSCOP, 289
Attitude of U.S., 290-291
Background of British policy, 289-290
Boundaries, 287
Economic union, 287-288
Federal plan, 287, 288
Geographic partition: Map, 296
Implementation, 288
Main provisions of partition plan, 287-288
Need for British cooperation, 292-293
Partition resolution adopted by General Assembly, 291
Population and area of the three areas, 287
Procedure of partition, 291-292
Reasons for Assembly's decision, 288-289
UN Commission named, 294
UN Special Committee on Palestine (UNSCOP) report, 286-287
U.S. and Soviet Union find themselves for first time in agreement, 288
Will Arab-Jewish strife continue, 293-295

Panama
Named to UN Commission on Palestine, 294

Pan American Sanitary Bureau, see World Health Organization

Petroleum
American interest in Middle East Oil, 310-311
American substitute sources of liquid fuel, 305-306
American Petroleum Institute standards for determining proved reserves, 302
Amount of oil used by aircraft carrier, 299
Conservation in consumption, 310
DeGolyer report on Middle East oil, 306
Economic-strategic dilemma of American industry, 307-308
Existing oil reserves of the U.S., 302
Interstate oil compact, "regulation without regimentation," 309-310
Latin American oil resources, 303-305
"Major" producers vs. "independents," 301-302
"Minimum strategic defense area," 301
Oil resources of the Middle East, 306-307
Output of oil in U.S., 1944, 299
Potential oil resources in the U.S., 302-303
Resources of the U.S.S.R., 312
Strategic vs. economic approach, 300-301
Subsidy system suggested, 308-309
Synthetic oil industry suggested, 309

Philippines
Named to UN Commission on Palestine, 294

Poland
Agrarian reform, 229
American policy on the Western frontiers. 23
And the Vatican, 236
Anglo-Polish controversies, 235
Armia Krajowa (AK), amnesty declared, 231
Bierut on property losses, 227
Changes stand on Marshall plan following Russia's rejection, 236
Communist drive for power, 230
Distribution of foreign trade; trade agreements, 233-234

Education Minister Skrzeszewski on "educational atmosphere at the universities," 234
Election results of January 1947, 231
Electoral law, 231
Exchange on elections between Britain and the U.S. and Soviet Union, 231
Imports and exports for first quarter of 1947, 233
Losses to Russia; Gains from Germany, 227
Nationalization law, 229
Nationalization law, conflicts with U.S., 235
Polish Committee of National Liberation, "Lublin government," established, 226-227
Polish Peasant Party (PSL) receives only 28 seats in 1947 elections, Mikolajczyk protests, 231
Political parties, composition, 228
Population losses, 227
Population of recovered lands, 232
Progress of recovered lands, 232
Provisional cabinet resigns and re-forms as cabinet of national unity, 228
Referendum of June 30, 1946, 230
Reports to UN $153 million of foreign credits, 233
Russian relations, 235
Sejm votes temporary constitution, 228, 231
Shipping tonnage, 234
Single list controversy, 229
Three-Year plan, 233
Treaty of alliance and mutual assistance with Czechoslovakia, 236
UNRRA contributions, 232
U.S. and Britain protest elections, 235
Wartime gains and losses, 226-228

See also Russia

Pollock, J. K. and E. S. Mason
American Policy Toward Germany, 198-206

Provisional International Civil Aviation Organization
Summary of activities, 218

R

Ringwood, O. K. D. (comp.)
Excerpts from the Terms of Reference for the Economic Commission for Europe, 120
Publications on the UN, 172

Roman Catholic Church
Poland's attitude on the Vatican, 230

Rosinger, L. K.
Britain's Proposals on India, June 1947, 95-96
Japanese Elections of April-May 1947, 60
Occupation of Japan, 50-59

Rumania
Campaign for treaty revision, 32
Peace treaty signed 1947, 22
Polish trade agreement, 233
Total of Russian reparations, 25

Russia
Accepts American principle of equality of trading, 26
Agrees to withdrawal of Allied troops, 30
Awards for increased agricultural production, 101
Central Committee of the Communist party directive stresses some of Russia's agricultural problems, 100
Changing economic map, 103
Compensation to allied property owners, 26
Consumer cooperatives program, 104
Council of Ministers, statement, 102
Deficit economy as compared with surplus economy of U.S., 107
Estimates of Soviet oil, 312
Expansion of transportation under fourth Five-Year plan, 103-104
Fails to join FAO, 277
Foreign relations with Spain, 127
Formalizes geographic shift of industry from West to East, 102-103
Free navigation of the Danube, 26-27
Gains under Axis peace treaties, 29-30
Government controls wages and prices, 107-108
Housing program, 105
Lend-lease "pipeline" and negotiations for a final settlement, 101
Lottery loans, 108
"Misappropriated" collective farm land, 99
Obstacles in the way of peacemaking, 22-23
Outlook for consumer goods under fourth Five-Year plan, 104-105
Output of oil under Five-Year plans, 312
Overhauls prices for rationed and unrationed goods, 108
Points of dispute between the U.S. and Soviet Union, 166
Problems of labor productivity, 105-106
Producer cooperative's program, 104
Prospecting program, 101
Resorts to wide range of methods to remedy manpower shortage, 105-106
Retains nearly 5,000,000 under arms, 105
Revival of collective farming (Kolkhoz), 99-101
Soviet Union and the Economic Commission for Europe, 116-118
Soviet Union takes part only in World Health Organization, 168
Stakhanovism, 106
State Planning Commission, (gosplan) report on first year of fourth Five-Year plan, 99
Take-home wage rates increase since 1938, 108
Terms of the Rumanian, Hungarian and Finnish reparations, 25
Total Italy must pay in reparations, 25
Tractor shortage critical, 100
Wage range, 108
Wartime manpower losses, 105

See also Germany; Korea; Turkey

S

Shertok, Moshe
Protests discrimination against Jews, 29

South Africa
Chamber of Mines controls gold mining, 66
Cheap labor, 69
Communists, 64
Economy based on gold, 66-68
Erosion on the land, 68
Food problem, 68
Foreign capital in gold industry, 67
Gold output, 66
Havenga Afrikaner party, 64
Indian question discussed at the UN Assembly, 71-72
Industrial Development Corporation, 67
Labor and the color war, 68-70
Labor party, 64
Malanite Nationalists, 63-64
Native policy on education, 65-66
Non-whites have few political rights, 65-66
Party views and leaders, 63-64
Political ferment, 62-66
Smuts' program; opposition, 64-65
Smuts' views on Commonwealth, 63
Social and Economic Planning Council, 67
Steel industry, 67-68
Trusteeship or annexation for South West Africa, 70-71

Spain
Actions favorable to Axis, 123
Aid to the Allies, 124
Ambassador Hayes quoted on Spanish neutrality, 123-124
Army privileges, 130
Barred from International Civil Aviation Organization, 219
Barred from International Telecommunications Union, 220
British imports and exports, 128
Cabinet changes, 128
Churchill-Roosevelt judgment of war actions, 124
Drought, 127
Economic struggles, 127-128
Evatt sub-committee report to the UN, 125-126
Favorable balance of trade, 127
Foreign relations, 127
Franco abandons "non-belligerency" for neutrality as Allied fortunes rose, 123-124
Franco explains "non-belligerency," 122-123
French-Spanish crisis, 125
Government-in-exile recognized by ten countries; cabinets, 131
E. J. Hughes quoted, 123
Law of Succession; Don Juan's reply, 129-130
"Non-belligerency," 122-124
Opposition from the Left, 130-131
Referendum on making Franco chief of state; total vote, 122
Rightist opposition chiefly directed against the Falange, 124
Spanish-Argentine commercial agreement, 128
Strike waves, 130
UN resolution against Spain, 126
UN Security Council debate, 126
Wolfram issue, 124

State Department
Absorbing war agencies increases size, 138-139
Compromise between strong State Department and workable multi-department apparatus, 140-143
Criticisms, 140
Foreign service, 141-142
History, 136-137
Hull and Stettinius reorganizations, 138
Increased in personnel from 1939-1947, 134
Kee Act reorganizing foreign service, 141-142
Marshall appoints policy-planning staff headed by G. F. Kennan, 136
Marshall installs Norman Armour as Assistant Secretary in charge of all geographical desks, 136
Modern functions and tasks, 144
More work than personnel, 138
National Security Council established, 141
Office of Information and Educational Exchange functions, 139
Relations with Congress, 142-143
Today and a year ago, charts, 134-135
Various reorganization plans, 143

Straits, see Turkey

Sweden
Credit of $38 million to Poland, 233
Polish trade agreement, 233

Switzerland
Credit of $11 million to Poland, 233
Polish trade agreement, 233

T

Talbot, Phillips
Independence of India, 74-95

Tariff
Economist comment on Export-Import Bank defense of its policy, 8
Exports and imports, 1934-1939, to non-trade agreement and trade-agreement countries, 7
Hull Trade program "modified protectionism," 5-8
Imports in the post-war trade program, 7-8
International Trade Organization (ITO) envisages elimination of export subsidies, 5
Nationalistic farm policy, 3-4
Protectionism in Stock-Piling Acts of 1939 and 1946, 9-10
Protectionist aspects of Export-Import Bank loans, 9-10
Quantitative import controls, 4-6
State Department "announces adequate escape" clause in important trade agreements, 8
Subsidy on export of farm products, 4
Testimony on stock-pile purchases, before Senate, 10-11
"Tied-loan" policy of Export-Import Bank and bilateralism, 8-9

Thomson, S. H.
The New Poland, 226-234
Problems of Polish Foreign Policy, 235-236

Truman, Harry S., see United States

Turkey
American position on the Straits reviewed, 178
Background of the Straits controversy, 175-181
Balkan Peninsula as a menace to strategic security, 180
British and French interests, 177-178
Control of the region of the Straits, 178
Controversy regarding war record, 179
Disputed Kars-Ardaham area; map, 179-181
Economy essentially sound, 183
Elections, 183
Elements of a possible compromise, 181-182
Guardian of the Straits, 178-180
Internal problems secondary, 182-183
Litvinov criticizes Montreux Convention, 179
Passage of merchant ships, 175
Passage of warships, 176
Percentage of loan to be devoted to military aid, 184
Permanent factors affecting the Straits, 176-181
Russia makes new territorial demands, 179
Soviet Union note on revisions to be made in the Montreux Convention, 174-175
Straits as international waterway; shipping statistics, 180-181
Straits important to Russia as trade route, 177
Straits important to Russia for military security, 177
Terms of U.S.-Turkish agreement, 183-184
Treaties of friendship with Britain and France, 1939, 179

U

Union of South Africa, see South Africa

Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, see Russia

United Nations
Accomplishments of Economic and Social Council, 168
Action against Spain, 125-126
Atomic Energy Commission, 165-166
Charter provisions for admission of new members, approvals and rejections, 162-163
Charter provisions on non-self governing territories, 168
Charter signed, 162
Chile proposes to establish economic commission for Latin America, 262
Commission for Conventional Armaments, 166
Dutch and Indonesian dispute, 165
Economic survey of Europe, 115-116
Enforcement action and breaches of the peace under the Charter, 165
Excerpts from the terms of reference for the Economic Commission for Europe, 118
Importance of role of Secretary-General, 170
Inherent weakness based on principle of the sovereign equality of Members, 170
Marshall lays case of Korea before the UN, 195
Organization, 162
Pacific settlement of disputes; Security Council record, 163-164
Poland's apparent discrepancy in voting in the Security Council with Russia and independently in Economic and Social Council, 236
Publications on, 172
South African question, 70-72
Specialized agencies, common characteristics of agreements, 224
System in evolution, 169-170
Trusteeship system; agreements approved by General Assembly, 169
Universality of membership under Charter and "great power veto," 170
Vandenberg's characterization of the Assembly as "town meeting of the world," 169
Voting procedure of Security Council, 171
Weaknesses: inherent or immediate, 170-171
See also Greece

United Nations for Specialized Agencies, see under name of agency, i.e., Food and Agriculture Organization; International Monetary Fund

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization
Conflicting aims, 278-279
Hylean Amazon project, 278-279
Mexico City Conference, 1947, 278
"Pilot projects" in education, 278
Social Tension Project, 279
War-devastated areas, reconstruction and rehabilitation, 278

United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration
Gave 65 per cent of Poland's imports for 2 years, 232
Total contribution 72 per cent, 111
Total expenditure in Greece, 150

United States
American and British position on revisions in Montreux Convention, 174-175
American policy toward Greece, 146-157
American position on the Straits reviewed, 178
American substitute sources of liquid fuel, 305-306
Coal resources, 305
Conflicts with Poland on nationalization law, 235
Dislocation of trade with U.S., 266-267
Economic-strategic dilemma of American oil industry, 307-308
Exchanges on Polish elections between Britain and U.S. and the Soviet Union, 231
Existing oil resources, 302
Foreign relations with Spain, 127
Greek border problem, 158-160
Harriman Committee recommendations to Congress, 259

Hayes quoted on Spanish neutrality, 123, 124
Import deficit under the European Recovery Program, 246
Imports of minerals and metals, 1942-1943, 9
Inter-Agency Policy Committee on Rubber, 11
International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 215, 216
Latin American petroleum resources, 303-305
Loan of $3.75 billion to Great Britain, 250, 254
"Major" oil producers vs. "independents," 301-302
Marshall's comment on American policy toward Greece, 154
Marshall report on the Council of Foreign Ministers, Moscow, 1947, 110
Marshall speech at Harvard, 148, 238
Merchant marine problem, 12
Military petroleum requirements, 298, 300
Points of dispute between U.S. and Soviet, 166
Policy on western frontiers of Poland, 235
Potential oil resources, 302-303
Presses for broad inquiry into Greek border problem, 159
Protests Polish elections, 235
Recognizes Polish provisional Government of National Unity, 227
Role of aid in British recovery, 258-259
Roosevelt-Armour letters on "distrust" of Spain, 124
Rubber consumption, 1935-39, 10
Rubber, synthetic, industry, 10-11
Russia's deficit economy compared with surplus economy, 107
Strategic importance of Middle East petroleum, 310-311
Stresses economic reforms in Greece, 155-156
Surplus property credits and Export-Import Bank loan to Poland, $90 million, 233
Terms of the U.S.-Turkish agreement, 183-184
Truman Doctrine, 146-148, 156-157, 182
Truman Doctrine marks turning point in foreign policy, 146-148
Truman Doctrine sends $300,000,000 worth of military and economic assistance to Greece, 146
Truman urges passage of Stratton Bill, 282
See also Axis Satellites; Germany; European Recovery Program; State Department; Tariff
Universal Postal Union and Postal Regulation History, 220-221

V

Vandenberg, A. H.
Vandenberg's characterization of the Assembly as "town meeting of the world," 169
Venezuela
Refugee program, 282
Second in world output of petroleum, 304

W

Wallace, H. A.
Support of reciprocal trade agreements, 4
World Health Organization (WHO)
Conference in New York, 279-280
Health organization of the League of Nations, history, 279
Interim Commission, functions, 280
International Public Health Office, history, 279
Pan American Sanitary Bureau, history, 279
Soviet Union fails to take part in any of specialized agencies except WHO, 168

Y

Yemen
Admitted to membership in UN, 163
Yugoslavia
Polish trade agreement, 233
Total Italy must pay in reparations, 25